Happy Easter!

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thank you to all of you for your unending support.

Yesterday our eighth graders portrayed a stellar dramatization of the Stations of the Cross, to commemorate Holy Week. They studied different versions of the stations, as written through the ages, telling the story of Jesus' last days on earth. Fifteen of them wrote their own story as they were called to reflect on the message. The depths of their understanding and reflections were remarkable. They memorized and shared their story to their parents, Bishop McManus, Monsignor Scollen and Dr. Perda. Unable to bring all the children to the gym, Ms. Kontulis graciously taped the performance and shared the link in every classroom. That link has been shared all over social media and today we are hearing from Alum and parents, who fondly remember when it was their turn. <https://youtu.be/i3vll4A7urs> As I looked at the audience yesterday, I was struck by how many of them had participated themselves and now watched their child. I am always moved to tears by their accomplishment, and their connection to God.

You have allowed us the privilege of walking with your child/children by sharing Jesus' message, and fostering their faith on their educational journey.

Thank you!

Wishing you all Easter blessings and hope in the Risen Christ,

Meg

Attention Pre-K Parents: If your child is returning to St. Peter's and you received an acceptance letter please be sure you email Mrs. Soucy ( marybeth.soucy@stpetercc.com) to confirm the session you are choosing in the fall. This is a new process this year. You will receive an email from Susan Saucier at the School Office at the Diocese of Worcester with your tuition information. If you have any questions please call Mrs. Soucy.

A number of students in our fifth grad have approached me to ask if they could form a “Happy Helping Hands” club. They have lots of great ideas for helping our greater community, I have a dear friend, St. Patricia Murphy who runs the used clothing shop on Vernon Street. There are never enough clothes to support the need. Therefore, this group has decided to ask that when you are changing over the winter to summer clothes or all your outgrown children's clothes to wash and place in a bag and drop them off at school anytime during the day. Adult clothing is accepted as well. We will get them to Sr. Pat and her group.
God bless your generosity.
