Kayley is able to justify her hurtful behaviors and comments. She often has a reason why it's okay that she behaved as she did. What do you think about this? Has this ever happened to you or someone you know?

Cecilia connects to her grandmother in many ways, even though they live far apart. Some relationships are so important that they must be maintained, no matter the distance. Who in your life is that important to you? Whether they live near or far, this person is so important that you'd find ways to connect no matter what.

Blake faces a struggle with academics. In life people face many struggles, and we can't always tell that just by looking at them. Struggles often make us stronger and help us learn how to overcome adversity. What struggles do you face, and how do you think they will make you stronger?
